

Working with Couples

Workshop in Christchurch with Walter Logeman

Three days: Thursday 13 to Saturday 15 November 2025

The aim of the workshop is to develop your capacity, confidence, and ease of work with couples and individuals who are in a couple relationship. You can build on the work you do and the workshop can serve as an introduction to psychodrama, sociodrama and couple therapy. No previous experience is required.

The focus for this event is using psychodramatic principles and techniques. We will create family sociodrama that brings to life our learning questions. We then learn together in action.
